

International Workshop

Pacific Histories

across Species and Borders

Organizer Nadin Heé

20–21 March, 2023,
Osaka University Japan,
Toyonaka Campus
Osaka University Hall, Second Floor, Seminar room 2

March 20, 2023

10:30 WELCOME & INTRODUCTION

Nadin Heé

10:45 Potential and Pitfalls of Pacific History

Ryan Jones

11:00 INDIVIDUAL PRESENTATIONS

Moriguchi Yuka Japanese Tuna Fishermen's Participation in Linus Pauling's Fallout Suit of 1958: Multi-Layered Movements against the Pacific Nuclear Tests

11:45 Nadin Heé

Transimperial Migration, Oceanic Sovereignty, and Tuna Fish(ing) Regimes in the Pacific

12:30 LUNCH

13:30 Kaminaga Eisuke

Soviet-Japan Fisheries Conflicts in the 1930s: Diplomacy and Discourse

14:15 Ito Koji

The Pacific as an Object of Inquiry and Control: Japanese Fisheries Scientists and Their Dream of Predictable Pelagic Fisheries before World War II

15:00 BREAK

15:15 Natalia Gandara

Pacific Entanglements. Commodification and the production of knowledge about the Juan Fernández Islands

16:00 BREAK

16:15 Kjell Ericson

(More-Than-)Human Migrants, Aliens, and Indigenes along Miyagi Prefecture's and Washington State's Oyster Coasts, ca. 1920s-1970s

17:00 Konno Yuko

The Unauthorized: Japanese Migrant Bodies at Borders and Waters in the Early Twentieth Century

Conference Dinner

March 21, 2023

10:00

Jay Alabaster

Better Food than Entertainment: Shifts in the Global Prohibition Regime Against a Japanese Dolphin Hunt

10:45

Akamine Jun

Whales, Orangutans, and the Amazonian rainforest: Victims of fierce competition among edible oils production

11:30

Ryan Jones

A Whale is not a Fish: The Soviet Union, Greenpeace, and the Commercial Whaling Moratorium

12:15

LUNCH

13:15

Ogawa Manako

Himeyuri and Hawai'i: The Interaction between Nisei Okinawans from Hawai'i and Local Okinawans

14:00-14:30

Final Discussion